

EPHEMERA AND ADVERTISEMENTS
FINDING AID
Albert H. Small Washingtoniana Collection

Contents:

Auctions, page 2

Boundary Stones, page 2

Currency, page 2

Schools, page 2

Scrapbooks, page 2

Sheet Music, page 2

Ships, page 2

Sports, page 3

Stereographs, page 3

Toll Roads, page 3

Tourists' Prints, page 3 (arranged chronologically by date)

Toys, page 5

AUCTIONS

By J.C. McGuire & Co., Auctioneers Auction Sale! Printed by R. A. Waters, "Star Buildings," D.C. Date: 1859. Printed broadside. J.C. McGuire & Co., Auctioneers, announce auction sale on Monday afternoon, October 17th, 1859. Up for auction are lots on Square 720, bounded by F, G, 1st, and 2nd Streets, N.E. AS 630.

BOUNDARY STONES

A Collection of Pictures Showing the Present Condition of the Twenty-Six Original Boundary Stones Between the District of Columbia and Maryland. Pictures and Description by Fred W. Woodward, 1905. Date: 1905. Notebook with photographs. A notebook, handwritten, describing each surviving boundary stone around the District of Columbia dating from 1791 including a photographs. AS 687.

CURRENCY

Twenty-five cent bank note issued by the Farmers Merchants Bank of the District of Columbia. Date: July 10, 1862. Engraving. Shows neoclassical clad female seated at center. AS 701.

SCHOOLS

Woodrow Wilson High School Alumni Association. A History of Woodrow Wilson High School. DVD. 2014. Narrated by Derek McGinty and Susan Wingo. DVD shows history of Woodrow Wilson High School from 1938-2013. AS 960.

SCRAPBOOKS

A Collection of Pictures Showing the Present Condition of the Twenty-Six Original Boundary Stones Between the District of Columbia and Maryland. Pictures and Description by Fred W. Woodward, 1905. Date: 1905. Notebook with photographs. A notebook, handwritten, describing each surviving boundary stone around the District of Columbia dating from 1791 including a photograph of each, sometimes with the author and his horse or bicycle included. AS 687.

The Nation's Capital. Guidebook in the form of a scrapbook. Artist: W.B. Garrison, photographer. Publisher: Albertype Co., Brooklyn, New York. Date: ca. 1925. Includes 24 professional black and white photographs of Washington landmarks. AS 973.

SHEET MUSIC

The Washington Waltzes. Lithograph by Thayer & Co., published by Henry Prentiss, Boston. 6 pages. Date: 1844. View of Pa. Ave. and west front of Capitol. AS 921.

SHIPS

Norfolk & Washington D.C. Steamboat Co. New Steel Palace Steamers. Color printed brochure. Date: 1904. Published by the Norfolk & Washington Steamboat Co. Includes timetables for steamer service between Newport News, Norfolk, and Washington, D.C. AS 559.

Jamestown Ter-Centennial Exposition. Printed brochure. Printed by Con. P. Curran Printing Co., St. Louis, MO. Date: 1906. This advertisement pamphlet contains information about the Jamestown exhibitions, a map of the sites, some black and white illustrations, the dates of the exposition, and information about rail and steamship routes to Jamestown. AS 834.

Norfolk & Washington Steamboat Co. Jamestown Exposition, April 26 – Nov. 30. Color printed brochure. Date: 1907. Published by the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Co. Advertises a day service to the Jamestown Tercentennial Exposition at Hampton Roads and Norfolk, Virginia. AS 567.

“St. Johns” on the Potomac River – 1910. Color print by Paul McGehee, limited edition, no. 1 of 500 copies, published by Art Recollections, Alexandria, Virginia. Date: 2014. This ship is shown on the Potomac River taking passengers from Washington, D.C. to Colonial Beach, Virginia, a 24 hour trip. Signed by the artist. AS 954.

SPORTS

The Federal Indoor Games, 1910. Program for track and field event. Published by the Washington, D.C. YMCA. Date: 1910. Program for track competition sponsored by the Washington YMCA. Includes photos of athletes; cover shows a man hurdling. AS 972.

STEREOGRAPH CARDS

Stereographs, ca. 1855 to 1890. Total: 115 cards. By various photographers: J. F. Jarvis, Bell & Bros., Griffith & Griffith, W. M. Chase, E. & H.T. Anthony, Kilburn Bro., D. Appleton, W.M. Chase, C. Seaver, Jr., and Luke C. Dillon. Includes Washington, D.C. views: Capitol; White House; Jackson Statue; George Washington Statue at Washington Circle; Treasury; Post Office; Patent Office; Smithsonian Castle; White House; Agriculture Department; Navy Department; Pa. Ave.; Scott Circle; Botanic Garden; Arlington House; City Hall; State, War & Navy; Arsenal; Washington Monument; Arlington Cemetery; Oak Hill Cemetery; War Department; Mt. Vernon, Congressional Cemetery; and Sumner School. AS 748.

TOLL ROADS

Rates of Toll to be Paid Here. Date: December 18, 1833. Printed broadside. List of rates for using the toll road between Leesburg, Virginia and Washington, D.C. AS 705.

TOURIST ITEMS

1870s

Souvenir of Washington. Published by George W. Maher, Washington, D.C. Date: 1873. Set of 16 miniature prints of major government buildings in Washington, D.C. with descriptions of the buildings. AS 810.

1900s

Advertisement brochure. Printed by Washington Souvenir Co., 1333 Pa. Ave., N.W., Washington, D.C. Date: ca. 1900. Advertising post cards, guide books, and albums for tourists. Includes railroad advertisements and a list of points of interest. AS 661.

Guide to Washington, D.C., Complements of the Passenger Department, Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. Printed guidebook. Published by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, 1901. Includes photos of landmarks and a center map of the city with the Ellipse labeled “White Lot” and the Columbia Deaf and Dumb Institute. Shows B & O Station and lines leading to it. Rear map show entire B & O Railroad system with connections to St. Louis and Chicago. AS 970.

1910s

Little Phostint Journeys: Washington, D.C. – Part I: Its Notable Architecture and Part II: The City and its Environs. Date: 1912. Published by Detroit Publishing Company. Two packages containing 80 post cards of colored photographs showing landmarks in Washington, D.C. Part I package is AS 964-A and part II package is AS 964-B. AS 964.

The New Washington, an Illustrated Description of the Nation's Capital. Date: 1913. Author: George H. Gall, published by the D.C. Chamber of Commerce. Many architectural photographs. AS 975.

1920s

Beautiful Washington As Seen from the Gray Line Sightseeing Autos. Date: ca. 1920. Publisher: Washington, D.C.: J.D. Milans & Sons for The Gray Line. Guide book with photos of the buses used. AS 967.

Group of nine miscellaneous photograph postcards of Washington, D.C. Date: ca. 1920. Published by three firms: Union News Co.; I & M. Ottenheimer, Baltimore; and B.B. Reynolds, Washington, D.C. Colored photographs printed on post cards. The post cards feature views of Union Station, the Post Office Dept. Building, and two birds-eye views. One is used and dated 1922. AS 988.

1950s

The Diplomat Motel, Washington's Largest and Finest Motel. Date: ca. 1950. Published by AAA and the Diplomat Hotel. Lists rates at hotel, located at New York Ave and Bladensburg Road, N.E. with a view of the motel on rear cover. AS 968.

Washington, Go by Train - Pennsylvania Railroad. Published by the Pennsylvania Railroad, probably mid-20th century. Colored travel poster showing the dome of the U.S. Capitol, White House, Supreme Court, and National Gallery of Art. AS 946.

1970s

Thirty-Two Picture postcards of Old Washington, D.C., Ready to Mail. Date: 1977. Edited by Robert Reed, published by Dover Publications, New York. Four black and white post cards to a page, 8 pages of street scenes, historic buildings, etc. AS 965.

Washington Remembered – 12 Views of Our Nation's Capital from a Bygone Era. Publisher: National Archives. Date: 1978. Black and white postcards of historic photos of Washington street scenes and buildings form the Civil War to 1930. AS 966.

1980s

Black and white printed postcard showing Labor Day parade in 1894. Published by Dover Publishing, Mineola, New York. Date: 1984. AS 987.

Black and white printed postcard showing old Corcoran Gallery (Renwick), ca. 1859. Published by Dover Publishing, Mineola, New York. Date: 1984. AS 856.

Black and white printed postcard showing Market Square, ca. 1900. Published by Dover Publishing, Mineola, New York. Date: 1984. AS 863.

Black and white printed postcard showing Patent Office, ca. 1864. Published by Dover Publishing, Mineola, New York. Date: 1984. AS 876.

Black and white printed postcard showing Marines passing Harvey's, Washington's oldest restaurant, after McKinley's inauguration (1904). Published by Dover Publishing, Mineola, New York. Date: 1984. AS 884.

Black and white printed postcard showing Lincoln's first inauguration. Published by Dover Publishing, Mineola, New York. Date: 1984. AS 892.

Black and white printed postcard showing F and 15th Streets, NW, in 1905. Published by Dover Publishing, Mineola, New York. Date: 1984. AS 905.

Black and white printed postcard showing the 1300 block of F St, NW, in 1906. Published by Dover Publishing, Mineola, New York. Date: 1984. AS 912.

Black and white printed postcard showing President Wilson at Griffith Stadium. Published by Dover Publishing, Mineola, New York. Date: 1984. AS 925.

Black and white printed postcard showing Ford's Theater in 1865. Published by Dover Publishing, Mineola, New York. Date: 1984. AS 926.

Black and white printed postcard showing the "new" Willard Hotel in 1904. Published by Dover Publishing, Mineola, New York. Date: 1984. AS 936.

Black and white printed postcard showing school children at 10th and P Streets, NW, in 1889. Published by Dover Publishing, Mineola, New York. Date: 1984. AS 943.

Black and white printed postcard showing Hecht's Greater Stores building on 7th Street, NW, 1911. Published by Dover Publishing, Mineola, New York. Date: 1984. AS 950.

Black and white printed postcard showing Pennsylvania Avenue from Treasury Plaza, ca. 1895. Published by Dover Publishing, Mineola, New York. Date: 1984. AS 955.

Black and white printed postcard showing the White House grounds on Easter Monday, 1898. Published by Dover Publishing, Mineola, New York. Date: 1984. AS 957.

Black and white printed postcard showing women's suffrage parade up Pennsylvania Ave. through Union Square. Published by Dover Publishing, Mineola, New York. Date: 1984. AS 962.

2010s

Washington, D.C. Vintage Postcards. Black photo album of colored postcards of Washington, D.C. landmarks. Compilers: Albert Small and Allan Stypeck. Date of album compilation: ca. 2010. AS 81.

TOYS

A New Dissected Map of the World with a Picture Puzzle of the Capitol at Washington. Jigsaw puzzle produced by McLoughlin Brothers, New York. Date: 1888. 632-A is the completed jigsaw puzzle featuring a colored lithograph of the Capitol. 632-B is a map entitled: "A new Dissected Map of the World with a Picture Puzzle of the Capitol at Washington." This map, measuring is attached to the back of the completed puzzle. 632-C is the original, decorative storage box for the puzzle and map. AS 632.